The Central Figures of the Bahá'í Faith:

The Báb

Bahá'u'lláh

`Abdu'l-Bahá

Shoghi Effendi

The Universal
House of Justice

The Báb's name means
"The Gate" in Arabic.
The Báb is a Messenger of God.
He prepared the people for the coming of Bahá'u'lláh.
He started teaching in 1844.

The Báb

Bahá'u'lláh's name means
"The Glory of God" in Arabic.
Bahá'u'lláh is the Messenger of God for this time. He started teaching in 1863. Bahá'u'lláh is the Promised One of all religions. He has come to bring peace and unity to the world.

Bahá'u'lláh

`Abdu'l-Bahá's name means
"Servant of Bahá" in Arabic.
`Abdu'l-Bahá is Bahá'u'lláh's eldest son. Bahá'u'lláh chose `Abdu'l-Bahá to protect the Bahá'í Faith. `Abdu'l-Bahá showed us how to live a good life.

` Abdu'l-Bahá

`Abdu'l-Bahá chose Shoghi Effendi as the Guardian of the Bahá'í Faith. Shoghi Effendi was `Abdu'l-Bahá's grandson. Shoghi Effendi protected the Bahá'í Faith after `Abdu'l-Bahá.

Shoghi Effendi

Bahá'u'lláh created the Universal House of Justice to guide the whole Bahá'í world. Nine people serve on the Universal House of Justice. They consult on how to help the people of the world.
